Building on last year's success, LUMINOSITY is proud to team up once again with the Perovskite Network – a group of EU-funded research initiatives.

Sharing a booth with sister projects, we joined forces to disseminate the latest advancements in perovskite technology.

Parallel event : Driving EU Leadership in Perovskite Innovation

LUMINOSITY took center stage during the Perovskite Innovation Roundtable, where Prof. Arno Smets, TU Delft showcased our work in the most engaging and compelling way.
